

TVSEP workshop

Program

Wednesday 15 March 2017

Room 115, Institute of Development and Agricultural Economics

Time	Topic	Presenter
9.00 – 9.25	Introduction and overview of TVSEP Data Use	Hermann Waibel, Institute of Development and Agricultural Economics
9.25 – 9.50	Determinants of Data Quality in Large Panel Surveys in Developing Countries	Mark Brooks, Institute of Development and Agricultural Economics
9.50 – 10.15	Comparing Peri-urban versus Rural Poverty and Child Malnutrition Reduction: Insights from Southeast Asia	Hoa Pahlisch, Institute of Development and Agricultural Economics
10.15 – 10.40	Understanding vulnerability to poverty - How do shocks and assets influence economic mobility of rural households?	Dorothee Bühler, Institute of Environmental Economics and World Trade
10.40 – 10.50	Break
10.50 – 11.15	Stochastic transfers and risky investments	Andreas Wagener, Institute of Social Policy
11.15 – 11.40	Only a matter of perception? The impact of local shocks on economic well-being.	Wiebke Stein, Institute of Social Policy
11.40 – 12.05	Validation of subjective risk perception Southeast Asia	Nele Degener, Institute of Environmental Economics and World Trade
12.05 – 12.30	Flood impacts on Household welfare	Tu Thi Ngoc Le, University of Göttingen
12.30- 13.30	Lunch break
13.30 – 13.55	Taking Risk Together or Alone: Evidence from Rural Population in Thailand	Melanie Koch, Humboldt University Berlin
13.55 – 14.20	Impact of agricultural shocks on non- farm enterprises in Thailand – Indirect effects through backward and forward linkages	Katharina Grabrucker, University of Passau
14.20 –	Migration and Hired Labor in	Susan Steiner, Institute of

14.45	Agriculture	Development and Agricultural Economics
14.45 – 15.10	Determinants of internal migrant remittances	Rasadhika Sharma, Institute of Environmental Economics and World Trade
15.10 – 15.20	-Break
15.20– 15.45	Exploring Differences in Rural Household Debt between Thailand and Vietnam: Economic Environment Versus Household Characteristics	Bezawit Beyene Chichaibelu, Institute of Development and Agricultural Economics
15.45 – 16.10	Disability and vulnerability to poverty	Theres Klühs
16.10 – 16.35	Structural Changes in Smallholder Agriculture: New Insights from Southeast Asia	Priyanka Parvathi
16.35 – 16.45	Concluding Remarks	Ulrike Grote

Note:

Time includes 15 minutes presentation and 10 minutes discussion