

Best Paper Award
for a scientific paper and a student paper using the TVSEP – Thailand Vietnam Socio Economic Panel data

The TVSEP Team invites submissions for a Best Paper Award for a scientific paper that uses the TVSEP household data in two categories:

Best scientific paper (2000€)

Best thesis (student paper) (1000€)

Papers should not yet be accepted for publication at the time of their submission. Student papers should have been completed after January 2019. There are no topical restrictions.

The award ceremony will be held within the

International TVSEP Conference on “Shocks and resilience in rural Southeast Asia”
on May 23 and 24, 2022,
in Göttingen, Germany (hybrid event)

Papers can be submitted until January 31, 2022 via the conference submission system (submissions will open by October 2021).

The TVSEP database consists of multiple household panel waves, village panel waves and migrant tracking surveys, collected since 2007 to today.

TVSEP data are available for scientific purpose and free of charge.

For more information, please visit the TVSEP homepage <https://www.tvsep.de>. Information on the conference will be provided by September 2021. In case of further questions on the data and data access, please contact tvsep@ifgb.uni-hannover.de.
